

We have a right to an informed citizenry. Since nearly 80% of all broadcast media are owned by the very few, we are not able to get balanced reporting. We are growing dangerously close to a system so common in dictatorships around the world where we are fed the pabulum of "approved" news. This is not what our constitution and bill of rights intended.